

Timeline detailing Jay Kimbrough's extensive connection with TYC is below:

- * February 23, 2005: Ranger Brian Burzynski begins his investigation. His superior is headquartered in Midland, Texas.
- * March 9, 2005: Governor's aide Alfonso Royal gets Ranger's notes. In March 2005, Kimbrough is being paid $10,500.00 per month by the Governor's office.
- * June 2005: Perry's office is advised that prosecutions regarding West Texas School are not progressing forward. In June 2005, Kimbrough is still on the Governor's payroll.
- * July 28, 2005: US Department of Justice declines to prosecute regarding the West Texas School.
- * February 21, 2006: Texas Attorney General's Office Attorney William Tatum – a subordinate of Jay Kimbrough – receives the actual Ranger's report. According to state pay records, on February 21, 2006, Kimbrough is being paid over $12,000 per month by the Texas Attorney General's Office. [Note: On March 26, 2007, Kimbrough told the House Corrections Committee "I think I went back with the AGs office to June 2006", omitting that Kimbrough was actually with the OAG and over Tatum's Division at the time Tatum received the report and reported it to his superior.]
- * October 30-31, 2006: Royal receives another copy of Ranger's report.
- * March 2, 2007: Legislative Audit Committee votes that Perry should appoint a TYC Conservator.
- * March 2, 2007: Kimbrough is appointed Special Master by Rick Perry.
- * March 6, 2007: Kimbrough orders law enforcement agents to TYC and begins directing investigations.
- * March 19, 2007: Texas Attorney General's Office and Legislative Council testify to the that House Corrections Committee that there is no such thing as a Special Master.
- * March 26, 2007: To the House Corrections Committee, Kimbrough admits he has no authority and is questioned about his employment history.
- * March 28, 2007: Kimbrough is named by Perry as Conservator.

Jay Kimbrough Pay History

- Since 2002, the State of Texas has paid Jay Kimbrough more than $\frac{3}{4}$ of a million dollars (\$773,138.93). This figure includes salary, longevity pay, mileage, and reimbursements.

- For FY 2002, the Governor's Office paid Mr. Kimbrough $101,168.62.
- For FY 2003, the state paid Mr. Kimbrough $111,851.71. Of this total amount for 2003, $37,222.41 came from the Governor's Office and $74,629.30 came from Greg Abbott's Office of the Attorney General.
- For FY 2004, the state paid Mr. Kimbrough $127,249.34. Of this total amount for 2004, $84,236.31 came from the Governor's Office and $43,013.03 came from Greg Abbott's Office of the Attorney General.
- For FY 2005, the state paid Mr. Kimbrough $166,039.40. Of this total for 2005, $141,955.79 came from the Governor and $24,083.61 came from Greg Abbott's Office of the Attorney General.
- For FY 2006, the state paid Mr. Kimbrough $152,552.70. Of the total amount for 2006, $144,259.04 came from Greg Abbott's Office of the Attorney General. The remaining $8,293.66 came from the Texas A&M System.
- For FY 2007, the state paid Mr. Kimbrough $114,277.16 through March of 2007, the entire amount coming from the Texas A&M System [Note FY does not end until August 31, 2007.]
- Since FY 2002, Mr. Kimbrough has been paid the following amounts by the following state entities:

Governor Perry - $364,583.13
Attorney General Abbott - $285,984.98
A&M - $122,570.82